

Doug Wilkerson has spent almost three decades in the Entertainment industry designing entertainment venues and immersive environments all over the world. With a gift for visual storytelling and a passion for theme parks, Wilkerson eventually traded his successful career in restaurant design for an even more successful career in the entertainment industry. With hundreds of projects under his belt, including FEC's, Theme Parks, and various entertainment center designs, Wilkerson is nationally recognized as one of the preeminent planners of multi-faceted entertainment venues. His portfolio includes a variety of projects with some of the most prominent companies in world including the likes of Walt Disney World, Legoland Florida, T-REX Restaurant-Disney, Rainforest Cafe, Vialand Theme Park, Headpinz Entertainment, Halo (343 Industries), Sparetime Entertainment and Main Event Entertainment to name a few.

Doug is a partner at Dynamic Designs & Associates (A full service architectural/design firm specializing in entertainment design).
